

The third book in this ongoing series explores many events – as they have unfolded within nations or upon the world stage. The nations are considered in the context of the greater rootraces of which they are part. The book is divided into various headings dealing with different themes such as: Global Issues, World Media and Propaganda, The Destiny of Individual Nations, with considerable focus upon the USA – as one of the world's leading nations.

Other themes include, the Externalisation of the Hierarchy in 2025, conflict between the forces of light versus materialism, inquisitions, the age of Aquarius, economic cycles, Hollywood etc. The nations that are explored are Brazil, Britain (Brexit), London, France, Paris, Germany, Austria, Greece, Australia, Ireland, Israel, Portugal, Russia, Syria. The USA section is divided into various sections such as politics, elections, guns and mass shootings and media.
